2. EXPERIENCE THE ESSENCE OF SITGES

Sitges is synonymous with identity, great food and drink, culture, tradition, nature, growth, creativity and more.

Sitges has many unique qualities that can make your event a truly special experience — just check out the activities offered by Sitges CB member companies. Impossible to replicate anywhere else, these experiences convey the cultural heritage of generations of Sitges residents.

We'll give you some ideas and let the inspiration begin. The only limit is your imagination.

3. SITGES IS GOURMET

How about a tapas trail to taste Sitges's renowned tapas and dishes? Or checking out the xató competition to learn how to make this iconic local salad?

We also recommend a guided tour with “Olor a Mosto” to learn about the heart of wine culture in Sitges, ending up at the Centre de Interpretació de la Malvasia de Sitges (CIM), where you can enjoy a tasting in the urban vineyards, the courtyard or one of the centre's rooms.

Also at the CIM, you'll be able to combine our fishing tradition with our wine tradition in the “Un mar de Malvasia” activity with the Sitges Fishermen's Guild, learning about traditional fishing techniques and today's wine-making production process in Sitges before savouring a typical ranxo mariner dish prepared by the fishermen themselves.

4. SITGES IS CULTURE

You can visit its 5 museums, its modernista sites, its secret gardens and the Terramar racetrack from 1923, currently the only active historic circuit in the world.

Being able to get around on foot, without relying on mass public transport, means that you can soak up the Mediterranean atmosphere in the streets of the old town, the city centre and the seafront promenade.

Whether on foot, cycling, in a classic car, with gamified or theme-specific tours, or on a cultural scavenger hunt, it's easy to discover the beauty, history and secrets of Sitges.

Since the late 19th century, it's been a meeting point and magnet for intellectuals, patrons, entrepreneurs and artists.

5. SITGES IS TRADITION

Sitges preserves events and traditions that have stood the test of time, some of which date back over 100 years.

You can experience Sitges's Corpus Christi festival, declared a Heritage Festival of National Interest since 2023, by decorating or making your own flower carpets.

You can also organise your own carnival in the style of the Sitges carnival, one of the most famous in the world and among the most iconic in the country, or you can have an event with traditional dances or castells (human towers), which are the heart and soul of the town's festa major, or main annual festival, declared a Festival of National Interest in 1991.

Another unforgettable experience is participating in a re-enactment of the Barcelona - Sitges International Vintage Car Rally, which has been held since 1959, by hiring classic cars and period costumes.

6. SITGES IS NATURE

Seventeen kilometres of coastline with 26 beaches and the Parc del Garraf nature reserve speak for themselves.

A wide range of responsible, environmentally friendly activities and experiences will let you discover unique landscapes in a natural park that borders the sea, whether you're trekking, cycling or playing sports, all amidst tiny chapels, vineyards and Mediterranean nature.

7. SITGES IS SUSTAINABILITY

In Sitges, sustainability can be a tangible, interactive part of your event.

Check out activities that allow you to connect with the surrounding community while making a positive impact, such as Eco Heroes Sitges, a scavenger hunt that introduces you to Sitges through the UN's 17 SDGs, or initiatives with local associations to support good causes.

When it comes to our commitment to Sitges, we don't just talk the talk, we also walk the walk. And so can you.

8. SITGES IS CREATIVITY

Sitges is bursting with creative energy, so don't hesitate to contact Sitges CB's activity companies, which offer unique, personalised experiences tailored to each purpose, motivation and group type.
